PLANNING PROCESS IN COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT SEMINAR

Date: Tuesday, October 4, 2016
Time: 8:00 am - 3:00 pm
Venue: Department of Housing and Urban Development - HUD
235 Federico Costa Street, Suite 200, Hato Rey

The Puerto Rico Planning Society (SPP) within the framework of its objectives has identified the need to promote the strengthening of professional skills of its members. To this end, in collaboration with the Department of Housing and Community Development "HUD" it has organized this seminar which includes a number of topics that have recently become more important in the planning processes that link community development and housing. The topics will collect a range of new concerns such as: climate change, resilience, sustainability and other aspects considered relevant to the practice of planning. However, the idea that transcends the seminar is the need to see the planning process of Community Development and Housing, from an interdisciplinary and participatory approach.
